

The Tale of The Three Protectors

Written & Illustrated by:
Sai Sri Aishwarya

As we have seen in the comic, Mr. Sharma made mannequins which look like the thieves and used them to train his dogs to attack them. This way, the dogs were able to recognize the real thieves and succeeded in catching them. Similarly, in order to fight against illnesses, scientists have created vaccines. These vaccines train the body to be able to face attacks from viruses and other harmful microorganisms.

Therefore, stay safe from COVID by vaccinating
